GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO CHANGE DATE OF SENTENCING

Now comes the United States, by its attorneys, Michael J. Sullivan, United States Attorney, and David G. Tobin, Assistant U.S. Attorney, and hereby moves to change the date of the defendant's sentencing from March 2, 2005, the date on which the defendant is scheduled to be sentenced, to another date. In support of its motion, the United States avers that the undersigned attorney for the United States is unavailable on March 2, 2005, as he will be on annual military leave at the Army's Judge Advocate General's School in Virginia. The undersigned attorney for the United States is available to be present at the plea any afternoon except February 25, 2005, and February 28, 2005 through March 4, 2005 (vacation/military leave), March 14, 2005 through March 18, 2005 (military leave), and April 15, 2005 through April 22, 2005 (out-of-state vacation). The United States respectfully requests this Honorable Court schedule the defendant's plea to any date that does not conflict with the above-specified periods.

February 22, 2005

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN
United States Attorney
